FRESNO STATE IDENTIFICATION

For athletics department purposes, the University prefers to be called simply FRESNO STATE - never Fresno State University and never shorten to Fresno.

For graphics or abbreviations, we ask that you please use FS - not FRES, FSU, CSUF or Fresno. Another acceptable abbreviation is Fresno St.

The University's formal name is California State University, Fresno. Fresno State is the preferred reference, less formal name for the university. It is acceptable as a first text reference, as well as subsequent references.

“V” IS FOR VALLEY

Fresno State prides itself on being the “Valley’s team.” This pride can be seen in the form of a green V on the Bulldogs’ logo and uniforms, as a symbol to the agricultural community of Central Valley of California.

The San Joaquin Valley is the world's richest agricultural valley in export dollars.

Bulldogs open new era with Wright in charge

The Bulldogs open a new era in program history this season with interim head coach Abbie Wright leading the 'Dogs in her first season in Fresno.

The 'Dogs will see their 30-match schedule feature four nonconference tournaments, 12 home matches at the Save Mart Center and a total of 18 Mountain West contests.

With nine returners from 2021 making their way back on to the court this season and five newcomers ready to make an impact this fall, the Bulldogs are primed for a breakout season.

Coming off a seventh-place finish in the Mountain West and an 8-4 mark at home, the 'Dogs will look to move up the conference standings this season and punch their ticket to the MW Tournament in Las Vegas.

With former head coach Jonathan Winder departing to be the head coach of the men's program at his alma mater, Pepperdine, Wright takes over after arriving this spring from Division II Seattle Pacific. In her five seasons with the Falcons, Wright led SPU to 65 victories and helped the program earn its first All-American in 10 seasons in 2021.

The Returners

After losing seven players from the 2021 squad, the 'Dogs bring back nine returners, including three starters along with sophomore libero Sydney Gazzaniga.

Headlining the returners for the 'Dogs are a pair of middle blockers in senior Grace Doyle and junior Kasey Purry.

The top returner in both kills and blocks, Doyle tallied 195 kills & 97 blocks a season ago and ranked second on the team with 37 service aces. The Chandler, Ariz., native registered a .357 hitting percentage for the second-highest mark in a single season in program history.

Joining her as a top returner is Purry who ranked in the top 10 in the Mountain West in blocks per set (1.13) and blocks (89.0). Also returning to the fold are seniors Lauren Sabbatini, now in her fifth season as a Bulldog, and senior Molly Eppright.

Rounding out the returners are five sophomores who all made an impact as freshman. Ella Rud, Brooke Cowie, Preslee Lillard, Maja Malczewska and Gazzaniga give the Bulldogs experienced depth.

Rud was the 'Dogs top freshman from a year ago finishing fourth in program history in service aces for a freshman with 30.

The Newcomers

The 'Dogs bring in five newcomers this fall with a pair of transfers in junior setter Hannah Waters, from Lamar University, and redshirt freshman outside Olivia Keller from Cal Poly.

A trio of freshman will add to the newcomers crew in middle blocker Addison Haluska (Gilbert, Ariz.), setter Meghan Lynch (Burbank, Calif.) & outside hitter Jenna Legault (Bothell, Wash.) who will each look to make their mark in their first seasons as Bulldogs. Legault arrives in Fresno after being named the Gatorade Washington Player of the Year last season.

The Schedule

The 'Dogs will get the season underway on Aug. 26-27 out East traveling to South Carolina to take on the College of Charleston, Rutgers and The Citadel before returning home to host the Fresno State Invitational hosting Seattle, Louisiana Tech and San Francisco.

Non-conference action closes out with tournaments in California with the Santa Clara Tournament, where the 'Dogs will take on Big 12 foe Oklahoma, on Sept. 9-11 followed by the Central California Challenge where the Bulldogs will face three in-state opponents at CSU Bakersfield.

Mountain West action opens at home on Sept. 22 against Nevada followed by home matches against San Jose State and San Diego State. The month of September wraps up with the MW road opener at UNLV followed by eight conference contests in October with six more in November.

Now back in its second year, the Mountain West Tournament will feature the top-six teams from the regular season and be held in Las Vegas on Nov. 23-25 with the winner earning an automatic bid to the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

ABBIE WRIGHT

Head Coach • 1st Season • Solana Beach, Calif. • Biola, 2010

Abbie Wright enters her first season at Fresno State first joining the program as the associate head coach before becoming the interim head coach on May 20 after spending the last five seasons as the head coach at Division II Seattle Pacific.

Combining to win 65 matches in her time in the Pacific Northwest, Wright led the Falcons to a 15-10 mark in 2021 while tying for fourth in Great Northwest Athletic Conference.

Sophomore middle blocker Hannah Hair became SPU's first All-American since 2011 this season and sixth All-American in program history after being named an AVCA All-American Honorable Mention.

In addition to her All-American honors, Hair was a unanimous selection to the All-GNAC first team, a AVCA All-West Region honorable mention and made the DII Conference Commissioners Association All-West Region second team.

Prior to her time in Seattle, Wright spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater Biola from 2013-16. During her first year there in 2013, the Eagles reached the NAIA national championship match before falling short to University of Texas-Brownsville.

Biola returned to the national tournament in 2014, 2015, and 2016 and posted a 115-24 (.827) overall mark in her four-year stretch on the sideline.

In 2015, Biola achieved its first-ever No. 1 national ranking while winning 30 matches and Wright earned the AVCA / NAIA Southwest Region and National Assistant Coach of the Year Award.

A setter in her playing days at Biola, Wright still owns program records for most matches played (143), most sets played (508), and service aces (182). Her teams made it to NAIA national tournament all four years, advancing the semifinals in 2007 and 2008, and to the quarterfinals in 2010.

Following the 2016 season, Wright was named to the "30 Under 30" list by the American Volleyball Coaches Association, which recognizes top coaches across all levels of the game who are age 30 or younger.

RUTH LAWANSON'S NO. 15 RETIRED

Ruth Lawanson not only rewrote the Bulldog volleyball record book in 1984, but also made school history in women's athletics by becoming the first female athlete, first athlete in a sport other than football, fourth athlete overall and first volleyball player to have her jersey number (15) retired.

Lawanson, the 1984-85 Fresno State Athlete of the Year, guided the Bulldog volleyball squad to the finest season in school history as Fresno State jumped into the NCAA Top 20 rankings for the first time and ended up tying for fifth in the nation at the NCAA Tournament. Fresno State finished with a final 26-13 overall record and 11-1 (second place) NorPac slate, both school-record win totals.

The 5-8 setter-hitter, a three-time Fresno State volleyball Most Valuable Player born in Ibadan, Nigeria, set season (488) and career (962) records for kills and a season record for service aces (55) in 1984 to garner All-America honors on the CVCA/Russell Athletic 12-member first-team, becoming the first and only volleyball All-American. She also captured a spot on the ASICS/Tiger All-America second team as well as NorPac Co-Player of the Year, All-NorPac first team, All-NorPac Tournament and All-Northwest Region honors.

After a brief stint with the U.S. National Team in 1985, Lawanson played with Dallas (1987) and Minnesota (1988-89) of Major League Volleyball. In 1988, Lawanson was named the Player of the Year of MLV after setting league records in kills (497) and hitting efficiency (.309). She returned to the U.S. National Team in 1989 and in 1992 won a bronze medal at the XXV Olympiad in Barcelona.
